

Atlantium Technologies
Job Opportunity

Atlantium Is Looking for a Controller for Its Finance Department

Atlantium is looking for a Controller for its finance department. The position is located in the Beit Shemesh area, Israel.

Job Description:

- Budget management - In charge of the budget and control including operational and financial procedures, including working with other department managers.
- Financial reporting process management both internally with the Company's management and externally with the auditors and regulators.
- External support programs reporting process management (such as Israeli innovation authority, European union, Ministry of economy) and interim reporting.
- Ongoing support of financial tasks within the department.
- The position requires communication with our subsidiary in the U.S. and periodic availability outside the usual office work hours to address various tasks.

Mandatory requirements:

- 10 years of financial reporting experience.
- Certified Public Accountant (either IL or US).
- English proficiency - the position requires English conversations and preparation of working papers in English.
- High level of Excel.

Candidate possible advantages:

- Experience with US IRS/reporting at the federal and state levels.
- Experience with Priority ERP.
- IT oriented / work with BI systems.
- Experience with IIA/EU support plans reporting.

Send resume at recruitment@atlantium.com.